THE MOST BEAUTIFUL THINGS ON EARTH

For many on the house hunt, the first call is to their real estate agent. The second is to their interior designer.

We followed suit in launching 1stdibs "Fine Homes" search last Fall, first calling Corcoran, then recruiting top interior designers to select properties that "spoke" to them. We were amazed by their enthusiasm, insights and intimate knowledge of the properties (one said she'd met her husband at a dinner party in the house for sale!). To spotlight Corcoran's Luxury Collection, we asked some of our favorite talents what domicile and detail they most admired in these latest listings.

Finding a new home can be like taking a new lover—without leaving your current one. There is nothing like falling in love...

Happy house-hunting,
