

Designer's Picks: AMY LAU

By: Chelsea Evers

Born in Arizona, designer Amy Lau founded her New York design firm, Amy Lau Design, in 2001. As a co-creator of the Design Miami Fair, the talented designer serves as a panelist and speaker at design conferences and forums worldwide. Below, find her must-have luxury home products:

BAMBOO CLASSIC CANDLE,
$34, Nest Fragrances,
www.nestfragrances.com
This fresh and modern candle is my favorite hostess gift. The glass vase is elegant and the scent is refined and refreshing.

KIVA PLATTERS, $494,
Rablabs, www.rablabs.com
These are an elegant and useful gift that I love to give to clients after completing their home. They can be used in a variety of ways, from presenting guests with wine and hors d'oeuvres to arranging perfume or jewelry.

OMBRE ALPACA BOUCLE THROW,
$475 for a standard 50x70" throw,
Rosemary Hallgarten, www.rosemaryhallgarten.com
These blankets are so soft, cozy, and beautiful. They can be ordered in a variety of custom sizes and colors, which makes it easy to incorporate them into my clients' unique homes.

BRENDA HOUSTON
TAVOLO DE CAFFE,
$32,000, Bespoke Global,
www.bespokeglobal.com
Brenda is an expert at choosing the finest stones and imagining them into handcrafted furniture and decorative applications. She can customize any slab into a special piece.

18X18 HAND-EMBROIDERED
CHAIN STITCH PILLOWS, $195,
Judy Ross Textiles, www.judyrosstextiles.com
Each thread on these pillows is hand-dyed, allowing for intense saturation and subtle nuance of color. The pillows are hand-sewn with impeccable attention to detail.

