Artful Color:

Five Shades to Elevate Your Space

Known for creating expressive, inviting interiors, designer Amy Lau draws inspiration from nature and adds her own luxe twist. A signature trick? Layering hues to create a serene and harmonious space. "I love a bold statement like painting the ceiling, walls, and trim in a lacquered gloss," Amy explains. "For this room, I chose Thunderbird by Benjamin Moore. When you enter the space, it's like dipping your toe into the Caribbean!" Here, Amy reveals the Benjamin Moore shades she's loving right now.

1. Summer Lime - 2026-60

"This upbeat pale yellow reminds me of a sunny day. Try it in a playroom, or as an accent in a more sophisticated space."

2. Crystal Blue - 2051-70

"The ultimate calming color—this tranquil soft blue-green signals the brain to relax and unwind."

3. Thunderbird - 675

"A smooth aqua-green. In a high-gloss finish, it looks sumptuously wet and shiny, like the sea!"

4. Seapearl - OC-19

"My go-to neutral, the perfect backdrop! It's a warmer off-white—so beautiful in natural light."

5. Manchester Tan - HC-81

"A timeless, elevated khaki, this is an essential grounding shade to play against brighter hues."
