

Atmosphere by Amy Lau; Custom Edie/Empire Chandelier by Mary Wallis | The Salon Art + Design, 2017

It's like walking into a plush empyrean cloud...the perfectly titled room 'Atmosphere' by Amy Lau is the first time an interior designer has exhibited in The Salon Art + Design show and it's everything it should be. The theme, "New Nouveau" is a play on Art Nouveau influences and Lau whips up a seamless, custom designed climate complete with glowing chandeliers and an ombre glass chair.

Click here to see our previous blog, Make Room: Vibrancy in White with Amy Lau Design.

It doesn't take long to feel stopped in your tracks at The Salon Art + Design show this year as it is filled with an astonishing array of awe-inspiring designs from galleries such as Jeff Zimmerman, David Gill, Karl Kemp Antiques, Galerie Chastel-Maréchal, Hostler Burrows and many others. Go! Discover the design portals that await you.

Click here to learn more about The Salon Art + Design show now on view from November 9th - 13th.

Jessica Helen Weinberg | Senior Content Editor at Bidsquare

Be in the know about upcoming auctions and exciting post-sale results by following us on Facebook and Instagram.